

The Eugene Ormandy Kilenyi Medal

It is not often that the Bruckner Society of America has an opportunity to see one of the medals that it presented years ago. But thanks to the online resources available at the Libraries of the University of Pennsylvania, we are able to see the actual Julio Kilenyi Medal presented to Eugene Ormandy in February of 1936.

THE BRUCKNER
SOCIETY OF AMERICA
HONORS THE CONDUCTOR
OF THE
MINNEAPOLIS SYMPHONY.

Eugene Ormandy, co-conductor with Leopold Stokowski of the Philadelphia Orchestra, receives the Kilenyi Bruckner Medal from E. L. Carpenter (left), president of the Minneapolis Orchestra Association, before starting on a tour of the Middle West and South.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

