MERCHANTS

Of Cuba Must Not Change the Price of Goods Sold

Along the Military Line on the Island by Order of Gen. Avolar.

Gen. Weyler Orders the Wives and Children of Patriots to Be Expelled From Their Homes—This Edict Brings Terror to Interior Families.

HAVANA, Oct. 13.—Gen. Avolar has improved upon Weyler's bank bill edict. He has issued an order forbidding merchants along the military line to alter the price of goods.

Pernicious fevers are scouring Santiago de Cuba. The mortality in September was nearly 500. Smallpox is decreasing.

Families in the interior towns are terror-stricken with the renewal of Weyler's edict ordering that the wives and children of patriots who may attack any city or town be expelled to another province.

This measure constitutes the greatest outrage upon the Cuban dignity. It aims at the corruption of families. Unscrupulous Spanish officers are well aware of the terrible power they can wield and do not hesitate to threaten virtuous women with the enforcement of the edict.

The Spanish Col. Rodriguez, operating in San Juan de los Yeros, was thought to be superior to most of his colleagues. He has always acted humanely and was respected by all. But a few days ago he caused the arrest of 17 persons, and all were hacked to pieces with machetes. The result of this was that many peaceable men have joined the patriot army.

HELEN KELLAR,

Blind, Deaf, Senseless and Tasteless Passed the Harvard Examination at an Age Younger Than Most Freshmen.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—A Boston, Mass., special says:

Helen Kellar, blind, deaf, senseless, tasteless, has passed the Harvard examination with credit. She had no preparation and the examiners did not know who she was. She will enter Radcliffe (Harvard annex) at a younger age than most freshmen.

Helen Kellar was born in Alabama July 27, 1883, her father being a former confederate officer, and later a United States marshal. No attempt at education was made for the first seven years of her apparently hopeless life.

It was when about eighteen months old that she lost all senses but that of touch. In 1887 she was taken to the Perkins school for the blind, in Boston, and placed under the care of Miss Sullivan, who devoted her life to the education of the little unfortunate. Three years later she had learned to articulate, and with a rapidly undreamed of by those who had to do with children in the possession of their full faculties. In 1894 she was removed to the Wright Harnison school, this city, refusing to become an inmate of a school built in London and named after her. Soon after she became apt in interpreting the speech of others by feeling their lips and is now able to communicate with any one within reach of her sensitive finger tips.

MISS CALDWELL,

Founder of the Divinity College of the Catholic University, to Wed the Marquis de Meriville.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—A letter received here from Miss Mary Gwendolin Caldwell, founder of the Divinity college of the Catholic university, announces her contemplated marriage at Dresden, October 19, to the Marquis de Meriville.

Miss Caldwell's marriage will be a very quiet one in consequence of the recent bereavement of her only sister, the Baroness von Zedwitz, whose husband was killed in a yachting accident about two months ago. The wedding will occur in the Dresden home of the von Zedwitz's and will be performed by Bishop Spalding, of Peoria, Ill., who is the administrator of the Caldwell estate.

She was summoned to Germany after the death of her father, to settle the affairs, and he has been appointed the guardian of the young son of the baron and baroness.

Miss Caldwell is in her 34th year and comes from a well-known family of Richmond, Va., and is also related to the Breckinridge family of Kentucky. She inherited a large fortune from her father. The first building of the Catholic university was erected as a result of a donation of $300,000 from Miss Caldwell.

Spanish Mutineers in Irons. MADRID, Oct. 13.—A dispatch from Ferrol says that a mutiny has occurred on board the Spanish warship Alfonso XIII, lying at that port. Forty gunners rebelled and attempted to seize the boats and go ashore. A fight between the mutineers and the marines and others on board the ship ensued, with the result that the revolt was suppressed and the mutineers put in irons.

Steamer Spartan Ashore. CAPE MAY, N. J., Oct. 13.—The steamer Spartan, from Boston for Philadelphia with passengers and a general cargo, is ashore on Hereford bar. Three of the passengers were landed by the life saving crew, but the ship's crew remain on the vessel, hoping to float her at high water.

They Are Cigarettes. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 13.—State Auditor Guilbert Tuesday decided that cigarettes with tobacco wrappers are cigarettes within the meaning of the Ohio cigarette law, the same as if they were in rice paper wrappers.

An International Arbitration Court. VIENNA, Oct. 13.—The lower house of the reichsrath has referred to a committee a resolution that the government should make overtures to the powers for the establishment of an international arbitration court.
